Legal Information Is Not the Same as Legal Advice

This booklet provides information about private money borrowing, lending, and brokering, designed to help users safely determine their own legal needs. Please understand that legal information is not the same as legal advice. The application of law varies with an individual's specific circumstances. Laws vary from state to state and are in constant change, and although we do everything we can to make sure our information is accurate and useful, we recommend you consult a lawyer if you want professional assurance that this information, and your interpretation of it, is appropriate to your particular situation.
